The Unusual, But unforgetting story

👁 21 ✓ 0 ★ 4

Chapter 1 by Jacob Anderson

You may have heard of me, but you have never seen me. There are tons of myths and stories about me, but this story is a true story. A story that not only is told around my family, but a story that just happened recently. My name...well, let's just keep that hidden for now. I live in the woods. Never been seen, but some claim they have seen me. Anyway on with the story, I come from a family of strictness. I'm talking about really strict families meaning that I can go nowhere without them being with me, they know everything about me, I sleep in the same room as them, I eat in the same room as them. There is no going back with this now. So here is the story.

I found myself waking through the woods thinking of that one girl I saw in school just the other day. She was the new girl. Very gorgeous, like your average tumblr girl you see on there. She had brown hair she wears braids (which I find extremely hot in a girl, don't judge) and she's the girl that you'd never expect to wear braids. Anyway on with the story, there was something about this girl that was odd and strange. Something that I couldn't figure out until later that day.
